As you see the industry is quite heavily male dominated with 1 in 10 employees being female.

Traditionally engineering has not been an area that females have entered into when selecting a career.

Female employees in the group tend to be more prominent in the defence division and office based positions.

Pay Systems

In determining pay and reward for our employees we balance a number of factors, including the economic climate, company performance as well as external market for the roles that we offer. Whilst our reward systems have always ensured full compliance with equal pay, we intend to generate gender pay gap considerations into future reviews of pay and rewards.
